

Who is AFNOR?

It is an association established in 1926 to serve the public interest by:

- Providing reference documents drawn up by consensus
- Organizing, leading and coordinating all standardization work in the French standardization system

AFNOR represents France at the International Standards Organization, ISO, and the European Committee for Standardization

1,270 employees, 37 locations worldwide and 68,000 customers

Four businesses

- AFNOR NORMALISATION
- AFNOR ÉDITIONS
- AFNOR COMPÉTENCES
- AFNOR CERTIFICATION

The AFNOR Certification audit focused on eight specific points:

1. The relevance of the robustness and transparency of The Good Living Score criteria
2. An analysis of the weightings applied to all The Good Living Score criteria
3. An analysis of the choice of internal and external stakeholders
4. An overall comparison of the system with the standards recommendations*
5. An analysis of the various stages in the use of the system by different users
6. A documentation review
7. The reliability of the data consolidation system
8. The detailed tests carried out by sampling primary/source information on the implementation and operation of the processes for collecting, reporting, compiling, processing, and controlling information.

*ISO 14040 series on life cycle assessment, ISO 14006, NF EN IEC 62430 on eco-design and ISO 14025 and ISO 14027 on environmental declarations.